

"The Tiger of France" at Mount Vernon.

Izzy Einstein, who has a reputation in New York for smelling bootleg liquor at a greater distance than any man living, makes a big haul of Christmas wine. This special raid netted $50,000 worth of intoxicants.

Mabel McCane, one of the vaudeville entertainers of Washington theatergoers this week.

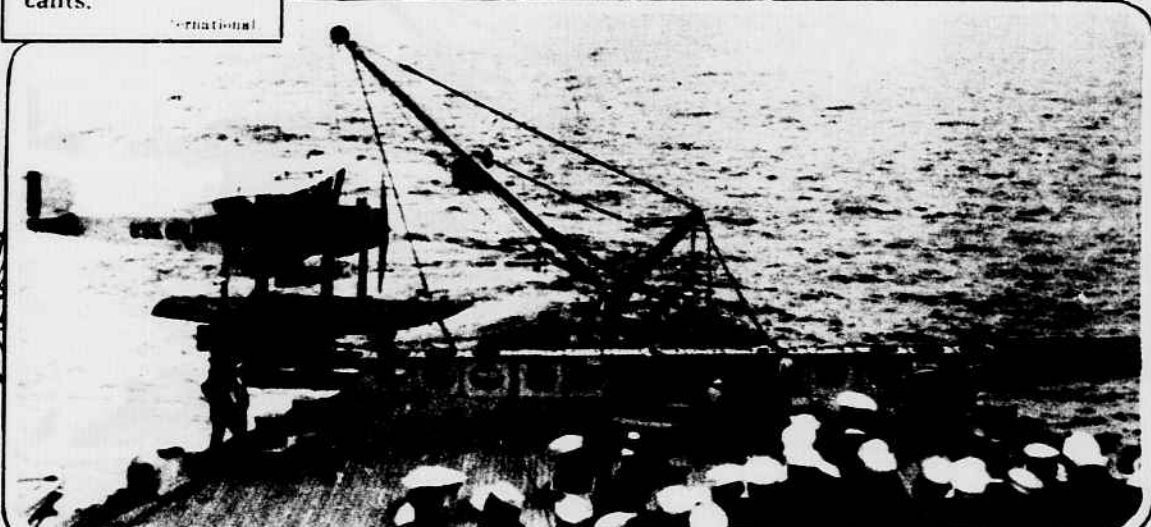

Gen. John J. Pershing a guest at the Bal Fantastique in Chicago. At left: Mrs. Potter Palmer. At right: Mrs. John Borden.

Prof. Emile Coue, French mental healer, visits a home for crippled children in Sussex, England. Prof. Coue plans a trip to the United States soon.

Irene Bordoni, who appears in the play "The French Doll," in Washington during Christmas week.

First photo of successful catapulting of seaplane from deck of battleship. Experiments were conducted aboard the United States ship Oklahoma off the California coast. This Voight plane was thrown from its carriage on the ship's deck into the air.

Age turns to youth. These fellows are happy in their work—the manufacture of Christmas toys for children. Photo taken in one of the big New York toy factories.